

MP-21 The Tokyo Rush.. (not hour..) Life..... - May 2000

Near the South Entrance to Shinjuku Station. Somewhere... um... Kawasaki Station!

Next to sitting down, the next best spot. On the fringe of Ginza.

The type of visuals I experience in the daily run to and from work.....

Not so crowded... if it had been, I couldn't have taken this picture. // Near work.

There was a time when the rushing trains seemed exciting.....

Maybe checking for e-mail? // Late at night at the first stop of the Seibu Line.
